CODE OF CONDUCT

Cwmbran Town AFC supports the Football Association of Wales “Behind the Line, Behind the Team” Campaign, which aims to improve behaviours in junior and youth football in Wales. Football should be a fun, enjoyable and positive experience for everyone involved. It is therefore important that we all promote and improve good behaviour on and off the pitch. Get behind your team and play your part by respecting the following FAW Code of Conduct for Young Players.

By signing below you are agreeing to do the following:

Wear the correct footwear & shinpads at all times, for my safety and others.

Encourage, support and co-operate with my team mates.

Not to bully or make anyone feel sad or unhappy.

Show respect and fair play to my opponents – shaking their hands at the end of a game regardless of the score.

Play within the rules of the game, not to cheat or waste time.

Respect my coach/manager and listen to what my coach/manager tells me at all times.

Under NO circumstances should you use swear words/foul or threatening language at matches or during training sessions to team mates or coaches.

Show respect to ALL regardless of Race, Religion, Gender & Age.

Not to make nasty comments about a team mate, another player/team or coach/manager in person or on any website or social networking site.

It is expected that you attend Training & Matches on a regular basis.

Tell my Club Safeguarding Officer or someone I trust if I feel unhappy, uncomfortable or concerned about anything.

You should also understand that breaking the Code of Conduct may lead to you:

Being asked to apologise to your team-mates, other players, officials or coach/manager

Not being allowed to continue the game

Being suspended from training

Being suspended from future games

Receiving a formal warning

Asked to leave the club

Also, your parent/guardian may be made aware of any breaches and a fine could be imposed on your club (especially when playing competitive leagues)
